

Junior Gordon Biography

Junior Gordon was born on July 1st, 1973 in Houston Texas, currently lives in Liverpool, Texas with his wife Cheramy and their seven children. Junior has had his hand in and played the role in the Second String bar scene for some time, placing a mark in the history of Country Music a long the way. Working his day job in Telecommunications for the past 16 years, never giving up the dream, always pushed and supported by family and friends. Junior took a position in a band in 1998 as the lead vocalist and started his climb, even taking a shot in the all to Famous Nashville and has performed in every legendary land mark with Country Music, ranging from the Country Music Hall of Fame, CMT, Tootsies and most every club in Publishers Alley. Junior stood on the same stage as many other legendary all time idols, Brooks & Dunn, George Straight, Mickey Gilley, Gene Watson and Ronnie Millsap, only made his desire stronger. The experience and lessons learned, Junior ventured out on his own putting together a band of accomplished musicians to make help make his dreams come true. Junior enjoys every minute of his small success story, his band members, family and friends. He believes that life needs to be lived to the best of your ability, work hard and share your dreams, your thoughts; your memories are the music of tomorrow.